The Affordable Housing Coalition was established by the Winston-Salem City Council to identify and recommend strategies that:

- Expand affordable housing opportunities;
- Engage supporters of and advocates for affordable housing;
- Coordinate and secure sustainable resources for affordable housing; and
- Advise the Winston-Salem City Council on the use of City funds to support affordable housing development.

The Coalition is also charged with submitting an annual report to the Winston-Salem City Council. The Winston-Salem Affordable Housing Coalition 2021 Annual Report is attached.
