- A parent or guardian knowingly allows the violation
- A business owner knowingly allows juveniles to remain on the premises
- An adult aids or abets a juvenile in violating the ordinance

Penalties

- Juveniles may be adjudicated delinquent
- Adults charged under the ordinance may face a misdemeanor, a fine, and a mandatory court appearance
- The desired outcome is compliance.

YOUTH PROTECTION SAFETY ORDINANCE

Juveniles are NOT in violation if:

- Accompanied by a parent or guardian, or by an adult aged 21 or older who is authorized to accompany the juvenile for the designated time and purpose.
- On an errand, using a direct route, before 10:30 p.m.
- In a motor vehicle with parental consent while engaged in interstate travel that originates in or terminates in the city.
- Traveling in a motor vehicle with a parent, guardian, or other authorized adult aged 21 or older.
- Engaged in lawful employment or using a direct route to or from a place of employment.
- Reacting to or responding to an emergency.

YOUTH PROTECTION SAFETY ORDINANCE

Juveniles are NOT in violation if:

- Attending or traveling to or from an official function sponsored by a school, government agency, religious entity, civic organization, or other entity that accepts responsibility for the juveniles.
- Exercising First Amendment rights, including the free exercise of religion, freedom of speech, and the right of assembly.
- Married or emancipated.
- Member of the armed forces of the United States.
- A person classified by age as a juvenile but can show proof of student enrollment at a college or university.
- Authorized by a special permit issued by the Chief of Police when the juvenile's necessary nighttime activities are not adequately addressed by other provisions of this ordinance.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH & ACCOUNTABILITY PLAN

- Workgroup composed of sworn personnel and potentially non-sworn staff responsible for follow-ups, home visits, and providing services to juveniles and their parents.
- Staffing levels are to be determined.
- A program similar to JADE and JPOST, tailored to our community's needs and departmental capabilities.

YOUTH PROTECTION SAFETY ORDINANCE

North Carolina Cities with Curfews:

- Charlotte
- Fayetteville
- Knightdale
- Rocky Mount
- Edenton
- Four Oaks
- Landis
- Pineville

WHY CHARLOTTE'S MODEL?

- After reviewing all models, Charlotte's approach demonstrated the greatest success, with a significant reduction in juvenile crime.
 - A 15% decrease in juvenile crime was reported from 2024 to 2025.
 - A 33% decrease in juvenile crime has been reported in 2026.
- While Charlotte's model serves as a strong blueprint, this proposal is tailored to reflect Winston-Salem's specific needs and priorities.
- We recognize that each city operates differently and may measure success using different benchmarks.

PRIOR COMMUNITY OUTREACH/ EDUCATION EFFORTS

- Conducted multiple news conferences requesting support from parents, community members, and organizations.
- Met with multi-denominational clergy on May 20th, 2025 to discuss strategies to reduce youth violence and delinquency.
- Met with Hate Out of Winston-Salem on April 7, 2026, to address youth violence and delinquency.
- Participated in live TV and radio interviews with local media, addressing community questions and concerns.
- Partnered with the Winston-Salem Police Foundation and Arts Council to expand youth programming, including sports, academics, and arts.
- Hosted a Youth Citizens Police Academy for high school students in the community.
- Active participant in the Gang Steering Committee, Youth Crime Summit, and STARS.
- Partnered with FCSO to supplement policing efforts as needed.
