In October 2019, during a Community Development/Housing/General Government Committee meeting, the Community Development Department was asked by Council Committee members for an update of upcoming cases. Staff has researched 310 cases.

310

This graph represents 310 cases from January 1, 2016 to January 1, 2019.

124

124 could come before Council, depending upon research outcome:

- 68 cases have 5 or less violations
- 56 cases have 6 or more violations

Cases with 5 or less violations are likely to come into compliance.
