Community Agency Funding Report for Fiscal Year 2018-2019

Strategic Focus Area: Service Excellence

Strategic Objective: Maintain City's Financial Strength

Strategic Plan Action Item: No

Key Work Item: Yes

Each year the City of Winston-Salem allocates funding through the Community Agency Allocation Process to local community agencies and non-profits that provide public services in the community. Funding is provided from a variety of sources including state and federal grants, and City tax dollars.

The attached report includes a history of community agency funding over the last several fiscal years, an employment diversity table for all agencies, and individual listings of each funded agency's mission, program funding, performance information, and program accomplishments.
