Summary of Information

The City Council approved a three-year commitment to Step Up America on October 10, 2022, in the amount of $2,258,234 in HOME-ARP funds to cover the costs for supportive services for a motel hotel conversion project with the development of 80-100 permanent supportive housing units. These units were to be prioritized for chronically disabled people experiencing homelessness.

Analysis of Financial Impact

As of today, contracts with Step Up America have not been executed and the Step Up America project has been withdrawn. As a result, the October 10, 2022 resolution must be rescinded.
