As part of the adopted FY 2019-2020 budget, the Mayor and City Council awarded a seed grant of $4,520 to Youth Achieving Moral Maturity (YAMM) through the SOAR Program. Staff with YAMM recently informed City staff that they would not be able to spend the funds. Based on an evaluation of community needs, City staff recommend reallocating the grant to another SOAR grantee agency—My Brother’s Second Chance. The adopted budget includes a grant of $5,000 for this agency. With the reallocated funds, the FY 2019-2020 grant for My Brother’s Second Chance will total $9,520. City staff will amend the City’s agreement with My Brother’s Second Chance to reflect the revised grant amount.
