Interests/Skills/Areas of Expertise/Professional Organizations

During my day to day I work in higher education in which I have been over ten years. After graduating from Winston-Salem State University I created a program called The Minority Male Initiative. The program focused on transitioning community college students to a four year institution. I am also a full time artist that created two interactive coloring books. From the proceeds of the coloring books I was also able to create a scholarship, which assisted several high school students. Some of my other skills include marketing, social media, and public relations.
