SUBJECT:

Fiscal Year (FY) 2016 Program to Prepare Communities for Complex Coordinated Terrorist Attacks Grant Program

Today, the Department of Homeland Security's (DHS) Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) is pleased to announce final funding allocations for the FY 2016 Program to Prepare Communities for Complex Coordinated Terrorist Attacks Grant Program (CCTA Grant Program).

Recent terrorist incidents, such as those in London, England; Boston, Massachusetts; Nairobi, Kenya; San Bernardino, California; Paris, France; and Brussels, Belgium highlight an emerging threat known as complex coordinated terrorist attacks. The FY 2016 CCTA Grant Program is intended to enhance security and build capacity for jurisdictions to prepare for, prevent, and respond to complex coordinated terrorist attacks that may occur across the nation.

The selected recipients will receive funding specifically to develop and implement effective, sustainable, and regional approaches for enhancing preparedness for complex coordinated terrorist attacks, which include the following components: identifying capability gaps, developing and/or updating plans, training to implement plans and procedures, and conducting exercises to validate capabilities. Successful projects will focus on advancing whole community and regional partnerships by collaborating across jurisdictional boundaries and multi-disciplinary entities.

The total amount of funds allocated for the FY 2016 CCTA Grant Program is $35,940,000.
