Members of the Winston-Salem Firefighter Combat Challenge Team will be recognized at the Public Safety Committee Meeting in December for competing in this year's Firefighter Combat Challenge World Finals XXX held in Fort Pierce, Florida, November 2-6, 2021.

Fire Engineer Benjamin D. Emert, Firefighter Patrick R. Davison, Firefighter Jordan A. Luzwick, Firefighter Alex J. Stovall and Firefighter Johnathan H. Watterson finished 3rd in the Relay, achieving the first medal our team has brought home from a World Finals competition. Battalion Fire Chief/Accreditation Manager Charles B. Browning, IV, came in 4th place in the Chief's Division. Engineer Emert and Firefighter Davison placed 5th in the Tandems, and Firefighter Davison was the 27th individual finisher overall.

Our Firefighter Combat Challenge Team members are to be commended for their awesome representation of the City of Winston-Salem and its Fire Department.
