Subject: [EXTERNAL] Zoning for Flourbox Tearoom

To whom it may concern,

I attended a previous meeting at the library on Buchanan St regarding the rezoning changes necessary for Flourbox Tearoom to exist on Salisbury Ridge Road. A tearoom is a rare find. It is a place to gather without the rush, a place to connect...it's also an experience as it brings a cultural experience from abroad to our locals. There are only a few other Tearooms in the whole state, even within the Southeast...I believe a tearoom would be a huge asset to the Washington Park area for these reasons.

I have thoroughly enjoyed visiting Flourbox Tearoom in the past and have introduced many people to the tea experience, all of them loving it and surprised that "little Winston Salem" would have such a gem. I would love to see it return for all of the connection and joy it brings to people. I also believe it would add diversity among the current restaurant offerings.

Since I am unable to attend the meeting this afternoon, I wanted to share my support of such an endeavor.

Sincerely
Janelle Siebsen
