

Centurions for Mayor Allen Joines Recognition on August 16, 2026, City Council Meeting

As part of Winston-Salem's celebration of America's 250th Anniversary, Mayor Allen Joines recognized local centenarians for their extraordinary milestone of living 100 years or more. In partnership with the DASH July 4 celebration at Truist Stadium, the names and photos of these distinguished residents were showcased to honor their enduring legacy and the generations of history they have witnessed.

Mayor Allen Joines will read the names of Winston-Salem's centenarians and recognize them for reaching the extraordinary age of 100 years or older.
