Applying for Board/Commission (Enter One):	Community Sustainability Program Committee
What Board or Commission are you currently serving?	N/A
Why are you interested in serving on that Board/Commission?	I am interested in learning about how the City of Winston Salem incorporates sustainability practices into its work and how I can help the City's sustainability efforts. I am a commercial real estate attorney and part of my practice focuses on renewable energy development, predominantly solar. I would like to become more involved with our community and hope to use my knowledge of renewable energy and the law in general to benefit and further develop the sustainability practices of our community.
